OXNARD Resource Center

Dear Oxnard Families,

Staff has had lengthy and numerous discussions about how to structure next year's workshop schedules. We came to the following conclusion, after taking all comments, suggestions and thoughts into consideration:

- We will be offering a K-5 day on Mondays (with a focus room for the 6-12th grade students)
- We will be offering a 6-12 day on Tuesdays
- We will be offering a ½ day of K-5 on Wednesdays in the am (with a focus room for the 6-12th grade students) and a supervised lunch hour for the K-5 and an hour of circle and games for the K-5 students.
- We will be offering a ½ day of 6-12 on Wednesdays in the pm.

This allows us to offer more choices of workshops; a focus on the individual age groups and less crowding in a space that is unfortunately quite limited.

Please know that we always have discussions, hear what our families are saying and are continuously evaluating how things work out. We would like to give this a try and see, how well it works. For planning our spring semester, we will be sending out another survey around October. At that time, we will carefully consider the input we receive from our families and adjust for the spring semester accordingly.

As always, we appreciate your input, thoughts and comments. Thank you for giving us your input.

The workshop schedule for the fall semester 2018 should be published by the last day of school. Sign-ups won't start until September.
